Office Administrator Position for St. Peter's-We are currently seeking applications for an Office Administrator for 32 hours per week. Some flexibility in scheduling is required. A Benefit Package is included with this position.

Applicants must have experience in general office accounting and IT- the church currently uses MS Office and Simply Accounting. As well, the applicant must be able to maintain and regularly update the parish webpage and Facebook Page.

The main duties are reception and the day to day running of the office along with the recording of weekly offerings, bill payments, payroll requirements, and the reconciling of accounts for the monthly vestry meetings. Other duties include all church related record keeping, scheduling and updating of church calendars, preparation of the weekly and special occasion bulletins, ordering supplies, management of the parish's website and Facebook Page.

Excellent communication skills, discretion, ability to multi-task and prioritize plus ability to work in a confidential environment are essential. Ability to work independently but collaboratively will be an asset.

Please submit your application to the attention of the Rector, Rev. Jean Smith. Email: rector@stpeterscbs.ca

Applications must be received by 5 PM, February 27, 2017.
