St. Peter's History Did you know?

St. Peter's congregation has produced two priests (in earlier years) for the larger Christian community. The Rev'd Samuel J. Andrews was born at Upper Gullies and trained at Queens College. His parents were Henry and Susannah LeDrew-Andrews. He served in the White Bay Mission from 1883-1894 and then moved to the United States.

The Rev'd Edward Andrews was born to Charles and Sarah Andrews of Upper Gullies on November 19, 1879. He received his Masters degree from St. Augustine's College, Canterbury, England. At the time of his death, he was Rector of St. Mary's Church, Haughton Green, Manchester, England. The Choir Stalls at St. Peter's were placed there in his memory by his sister, Naomi Haines.

Reverend Edward Andrews

Thanks to Aubrey Dawe for his huge contribution of historical information.

It can be left at the Parish Office or call Mabel at 834-1390 for pickup. Thank you for the LOVE you have shown by participating in this project. You have brought smiles and comfort to thousands of underprivileged children!!
