                          I Feel the Winds of God Today

I feel the winds of God today/ today my sail I life, though heavy oft with drenching spray/ and torn with many a rift;
if hope but light the water's crest,/ and Christ my bark will use, I'll seek the seas at his behest, / and brave another cruise.

It is the wind of God that dries/ my vain regretful tears, until with braver thoughts shall rise/ thy purer, brighter years; if cast on shores of selfish ease/ or pleasure I should be,
Lord, let me feel thy freshening breeze, / and I'll put back to sea.

If ever I forget thy love/ and how that love was shown, lift high the blood-red flag above;/ it bears thy name alone.
Great pilot of my onward way, / thou wilt not let me drift.
I feel the winds of God today, / today my sail I lift.

Will Your Anchor Hold

Will your anchor hold in the storms of life?
When the clouds unfold their wings of strife, when the strong tides lift and the cables strain, will your anchor drift or firm remain?

Chorus

We have an anchor that keeps the soul steadfast and sure while the billows roll, fastened to the rock which cannot move, grounded firm and deep in the Saviour's love.

It will surely hold in the straits of fear, when the breakers tell that the reef is near;
though the tempests rave and the wild winds blow, not an angry wave shall our bark o'erflow. Chorus

It will surely hold in the floods of death, when the waters cold chill our latest breath;
on the rising tide it can never fail while our hopes abide within the veil. Chorus

When our eyes behold, through the gathering night, the city of gold, our harbour bright,
we shall anchor fast by the heavenly shore, with the storms all past for evermore. Chorus
