“You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my Church.” Matthew 16-18

LAST SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY

February 11, 2018

His clothes became dazzling white, such as no one on earth could bleach them. ⁴And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus. (Mark 9:3-4)

LECTIONARY: 2 Kings 2:1-12; Psalm 50:1-6 (BCP p392; BAS p768); 2 Corinthians 4:3-6; Mark 9:2-9

COLLECT Almighty God, on the holy mount you revealed to chosen witnesses your well-beloved Son, wonderfully transfigured: mercifully deliver us from the darkness of this world, and change us into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS Holy God, receive all we offer you this day, and bring us to that radiant glory which we see in the transfigured face of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION Holy God, we see your glory in the face of Jesus Christ. May we who are partakers of his table reflect his life in word and deed, that all the world may know his power to change and save. We ask this in his name. Amen.

HYMNS FOR 10:30 SERVICE

Opening: I am the Light of the World (Printed below)
Gradual: (#167) 'Tis Good, Lord, to Be Here
Offering: (#397) Praise the One Who Breaks the Darkness
Communion: Christ Be Our Light
Choral Benediction: Make Me a Servant
Make me a servant; humble and meek
Lord, let me lift up those who are weak
And may the prayer of my heart always be:
Make me a servant, make me a servant,
Make me a servant today.
Closing: (#630) You, Lord, Are Both Lamb and Shepherd

††††††

I am the light of the world!

You people come and follow me!"

If you follow and love you'll learn the mystery of what you were meant to do and be.

When the song of the angels is stilled,
when the star in the sky is gone,
when the kings and the shepherds have found their way home,
the work of Christmas is begun: (Chorus)

To find the lost and lonely one,
to heal the broken soul with love,
to feed the hungry children with warmth and good food,
to feel the earth below, the sky above! (Chorus)

To free the prisoner from all chains,
to make the powerful care,
to rebuild the nations with strength of good will,
to see God's children everywhere! (Chorus)

To bring hope to every task you do,
to dance at a baby's new birth,
to make music in an old person's heart,
and sing to the colours of the earth! (Chorus)

Today's Short Message

February 14th is Ash Wednesday. As in past years there will be a special Lenten Service each Wednesday, beginning with the Ash Wednesday Liturgy on the 14th at 7pm.

I invite you to attend this service of self-examination, penitence and prayer. In the service I will be introducing the theme I've chosen for our Wednesday services during Lent – Lord, Teach Us to Pray. The other Wednesday evening gatherings will begin with a short 30-minute service followed by 45-60 minute activity devoted to different approaches to prayer. Some people may not be able to stay for the second part while others may come only for the second part. The following poem that I found on the internet can lead us into self-examination as we prepare to observe a Holy Lent:

Is anybody happier because you crossed their way?
Does anyone remember that you spoke to them today?
The day is almost over and its toiling time is through.
Is there anyone to utter now a grateful word of you?
As you take a glance back over the day that is slipping fast,
Did you help a single person of the many that you passed?
Is a single heart rejoicing over what you did or said?
Does the one whose hopes were fading now with courage look ahead?
Did you win the day or lose it? Was it well or sorely spent?
Did you leave a trail of kindness or a scar of discontent?
As you close your eyes in slumber do you think that God will say?
"You have earned one more tomorrow by the good you did today!"
