Good Friday Reflections: It’s a pleasure to have Revd Bonnie presenting the reflections on the “Seven Words from the Cross.” Many of us can remember when it was the tradition to have a three-hour service with seven sermons based on these seven words.

Today’s Collection: Please note that we won’t be taking up an offering during a hymn today. Instead, if you have brought an offering, please place it in the plate at the entrance to the church. It will be presented during the singing of the second last hymn.

Forgive them, O my Father,
they know not what they do.
The Savior spoke in anguish,
as the sharp nails went through.

No pained reproaches gave he
to them that shed His blood,
but prayer and tenderest pity
large as the love of God.

For me was that compassion,
for me that tender care;
I need his wide forgiveness
as much as any there.

It was my pride and hardness
that hung him on the tree;
those cruel nails, O Saviour,
were driven in by me.

And often I have slighted
thy gentle voice that chid:
forgive me too, Lord Jesus,
I knew not what I did.

O depth of sweet compassion!
O love divine and true!
Save thou the souls that slight thee,
and know not what they do.
